Aug. 31, 2007

Fayetteville, NC - The American International Sports Tours (AIST) have invited three members of the 2007 Fayetteville State University softball team to tryout for the 2008 traveling team; which train and play in the Dominican Republic. If they are selected, the team will make an eight days tour of the Republic.

Invited to join this elite squad of college players are sophomore Donieca Ebron, a 5-0, outfielder from Belhaven, NC, junior Shatia Gidrey, a 5-10, first baseman, a native of Richland, NC and freshman Dominique Mills, a 5-4 center fielder from Williamston, NC.

These student-athletes would be outstanding representatives of the university and the Bronco family extends our best wishes.

The 2007 Lady Broncos Softball team finished their season 8-27 overall
