

AIST Select Team Coach - Terms and Conditions

Terms and Conditions of the Coaching Agreement (hereinafter "Agreement") between American International Sports Teams (hereinafter "AIST") and AIST Selected Coach (hereinafter "Coach") to serve as head coach for AIST's traveling abroad program.

Non-Employee/Non-Agent of AIST: It is understood and agreed that this Agreement is not intended to nor does it create an employment contract between Coach and AIST, and any of AIST's employees; nor does it create a joint relationship or partnership between Coach and AIST. It is also understood and agreed that this Agreement is not intended to nor does it cause Coach to be considered an agent of AIST. Neither Coach, nor AIST, shall incur any obligation or expense for, or on behalf of, the other party without the other party's prior written consent in each instance.

Modification: No modification, amendment, addition to, or waiver of the provisions of this Agreement shall be valid or enforceable unless made in writing and signed by an authorized agent of AIST.

Jurisdiction and Venue: The jurisdiction of any proceeding between the parties arising out of or with respect to this Agreement shall be in a court of competent jurisdiction in the State of Missouri.

Governing Law: This agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Missouri.

Coaching Responsibilities: As the head coach or Co-Head Coach, you will have the responsibilities of working with the players to improve their skills throughout the tour, executing games strategies and management of the games. Some administrative duties may be delegated to you throughout the tour. (Duties may include such things as, organizing practices and/or other small tasks on tour). As a coach for AIST teams, you are expected to display good sportsmanship and kindness to each athlete traveling as well as opponents. You and the assistant coach will work together to ensure that each individual gets a fair share of playing time. You are representing both AIST and the USA while traveling abroad. We want to leave behind an image that will reflect AIST and the USA as respectful and gracious to all who are involved. At times, when traveling abroad, things may not always go as planned. It is your responsibility to maintain a positive attitude and help keep the order of the tour in a positive manner. At no time during the tour should you be complaining to players about the service or quality of any portion of the tour. If you have complaints about the tour you need to confront your AIST guide in private to resolve any issues.

Cancellations: If you have to cancel your trip with us for any reason you will be subject to the following cancellation charges:
Cost of airline tickets if they have been purchased - Less than 100 days prior to departure

Passports and visas: A passport is required to depart the USA for International destinations. You can get passport applications and file them at any US Post office. Allow 14 weeks for processing. You must have 6 months remaining on your passport from the return date for it to be valid.

You will need:

- 1) An original birth certificate
- 2) 2 forms of ID
- 3) A check for amount of passport (Approx. $135)
- 4) A passport picture (no substitutes)

AIST Termination Policy American International Sports Teams reserves the right to terminate this contract at any time for any reason. If your contract is terminated, you will be responsible for any monetary obligations as set forth in your agreement.

Insurance: We highly recommend the purchase of travelers insurance. Please contact Angela Hecht at ahlecht@responseco.com 631.752.8024
